Dear Booksellers,

Gear up for Christmas early with these titles from Hardie Grant!

Australia's favourite cook Adam Liaw is back with a new cookbook featuring smarter recipes for faster cooking! Time for Dinner is full of simple and satisfying meal ideas, and is perfect for everyone, from busy singles to on-the-go families. Packed with more than 80 time-saving recipes like Kimchi and Garlic Butter Fried Rice and Turkish Tandoori Drumsticks, this delicious and original collection takes the grind out of midweek cooking with nutritious and affordable meals so that you'll always have time for dinner.

Hit the road with Ultimate Road Trips as experienced travel writer Lee Atkinson guides you through 50 of the best driving holidays around the globe. Featuring routes from Outback Australia, Iceland, South Africa, the Canadian Rockies and plenty more, readers with a thirst for adventure will be pleased to find both well-loved and lesser known destinations. Each entry includes detailed route maps, information on the best time to go, and tips on where to eat and sleep, see and do.

From Ultimo Press comes Everywhere We Look by Martine Kropkowski — a novel that explores domestic abuse, the dynamics of female friendship, and the danger that can hide in plain sight.

From HGCP comes the long-awaited middle-grade novel from internationally bestselling author-illustrator Judith Rossell, The Midwatch! Banished to the Midwatch Institute for Orphans, Runaways and Unwanted Girls, Maggie Fishbone soon discovers that there's more to this place than meets the eye... Be prepared to be drawn into a world brimming with mystery, unlikely heroines and an adventure as big as the sky! Introducing Megan Hess' newest title in the Young Queens Collection: The Curious Crown! When young Ella Rose looks out the window and sees a boy with a bare Christmas tree, she thinks of the magical crown in her palace, under lock and key. If she borrows it – just for one night – will she be able to find the courage and creativity she needs to help him?

Always Was, Always Will Be The Campaign for Justice and Recognition Continues Thomas Mayo

978174179279 | Hardie Grant Explore | 3 September 2024 | Paperback | 198 x 128 | 176 Pages

Thomas Mayo is a Kaurareg Aboriginal and Kalkagal, Erubamle Torres Strait Islander man. He is the National Indigenous Officer of the MUA. Thomas is a signatory of the Uluru Statement from the Heart and has been a leading advocate since its inception in May 2017. He is the Chairperson of the Northern Territory Indigenous Labor Network, advises the Diversity Council of Australia and the From the Heart campaign, and is an executive member of the Northern Territory Trades and Labour Council. Thomas has previously written five books published by Hardie Grant, and has articles and essays published in The Guardian, Griffith Review and Sydney Morning Herald.

From the ABIA Book of the Year 2024 award winning co-author of The Voice to Parliament!

In Always Was, Always Will Be, bestselling author Thomas Mayo investigates 'what's next?' for reconciliation and justice in Australia after the failed October 2023 Voice to Parliament referendum.

Since the referendum, supporters and volunteers have been asking for guidance as to how to continue to support Indigenous recognition. Mayo, a leader of the Yes 23 campaign and co-author of the bestselling The Voice to Parliament Handbook, has penned a new book to answer that question.

Always Was, Always Will Be is essential reading for those people who want to keep the positive momentum going and the number of allies growing. It's for Indigenous and non-Indigenous people who are ready to do everything they can to close the gap.

On writing the book Mayo said: 'The book starts with the ingredients for hope, it will cover the lessons from the past, and ultimately, Always Was, Always Will Be is about the future we want to see – one where there is justice for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People.'

For the thousands of people who have been feeling sad, empty and powerless since last October, Always Was, Always Will Be aims to be a positive rallying cry. This book will map the path toward next steps on how to create a fairer Australia.
