

The Briefing

June 2022

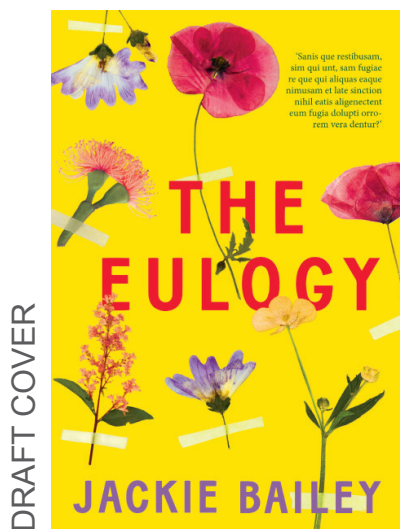

Featuring: Andrew Bain, Jackie Bailey, Natalie Walton, Sulari Gentill, Hannah Bent, Toni D'Alia & Alice Lindstrom

Dear Booksellers,

Winter is here, so it's time to curl up with a good book.

Journey across Australia on two wheels with Ultimate Cycling Trips: Australia, the complete guide to the best trails in the country. The Eulogy is a literary page-turner from new Australian voice Jackie Bailey. A story about family, death and grief that is full of love, humour and life. Natalie Walton is back with a lush new book, Style, a timeless interiors book that shows you how to transform your living spaces using what you own and love.

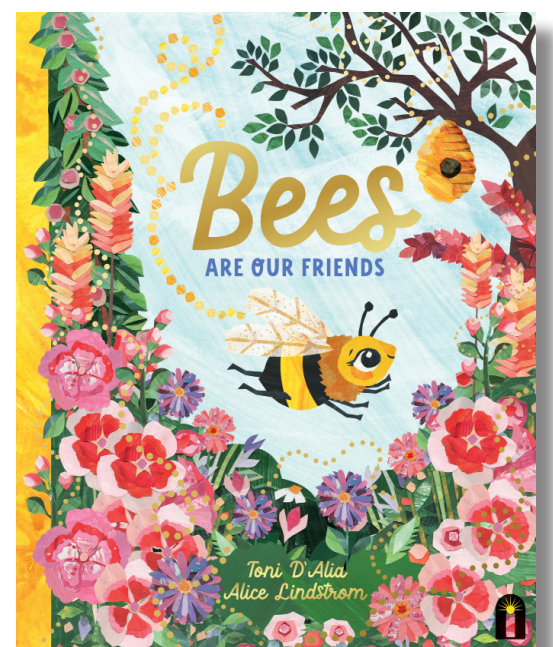

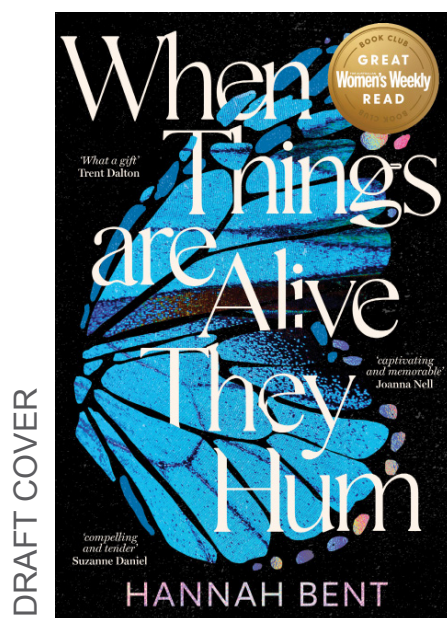

This month Ultimo Press brings readers an unexpectedly twisty literary adventure that examines the complicated nature of friendship and shows us that words can be the most treacherous weapons. Crime aficionados can prepare to leave no page unturned in the upcoming whodunit from award-winning author Sulari Gentill in The Woman and The Library. This month also sees the publication of the second format of When Things are Alive they Hum, by author Hannah Bent, Shortlisted for the Indie Book Debut Fiction 2021. Dubbed a 'wise, wondrous celebration of life' by The Australian, and 'a tender portrayal of sisterly love and impossible choices that will break your heart' by The Sydney Morning Herald, the Hum that connects us all continues to be heard by readers.

Bees are Our Friends invites readers into a stunning garden to admire the hard work of one little bee. As the bee pollinates the garden, vibrant flowers and ripe fruit and vegetables burst to life around her. Written in irresistible rhyme by Toni D'Alia, and lavishly illustrated by Alice Lindstrom, young readers will pore over this perfect introduction to these essential insects.
