

The Briefing

July 2022

Featuring: Dyani Lewis, Fiona Weir Walmsley, Fiona Brockhoff, Pirooz Jafari, Alex Sarkis, Biffy James

Dear Booksellers,

Keep warm this winter with kitchen miracles and fascinating investigative journalism.

The second book in The Crikey Read series, Unvaxxed, is a timely look at vaccine hesitancy and how misinformation has influenced the Australian experience of the COVID-19 pandemic, written award-winning science journalist Dyani Lewis. If you are looking for a connection with what you eat, then look no further than From Scratch, a cheerful collection of recipes, and a simple guide to making your own food and staples, starting at the very beginning. Fiona Brockhoff's gardens take centre stage in With Nature, an inspirational look at garden design and landscaping, complete with tips, design guidance and inspiration to help you create your own sustainable, naturalistic and wholistic gardens.

This month from Ultimo Press comes Forty Nights, an interwoven saga of love, found and lost again, shaped by Pirooz Jafari's life in post-Islamic Revolution Iran. This story is intertwined with a magical tale set in medieval Gotland and a contemporary storyline focused on the plight of asylum seekers in Australia. Something Blue by Alex Sarkis marks the arrival of an exciting new voice in fiction, bringing Western Sydney to life with great wit and empathy.

Shortlisted for the Ampersand Prize, Completely Normal (and other lies) by Biffy James is a gripping, witty, and uplifting YA novel about first love, secret grief, heartbreak and true friendship. Stella Wilde is secretly in love with the hottest guy in school, Isaac Calder. He seems to love her back, but he already has a girlfriend, Grace Reyes. When Isaac is killed in an accident, Stella must hide her feelings to stop people from finding out about her and Isaac. But how long can Stella keep lying to everyone? And when the truth finally comes out, how will it affect her newfound friendship with Grace?
